

English

During this term we will develop a number of English skills linked to fiction and non-fiction texts. The children will read, analyse and explore these genres before using them as a stimulus for their own writing. Throughout the term the children will cover a range of spelling, grammar and punctuation skills.

The genres we will be covering this half term are

- *Recount
- *Poetry
- *stories from other cultures
- *Non chronological reports

Numeracy

The children will cover the following areas

- Number, place value and rounding
- Mental addition and subtraction
- Multiplication and division:
  - Number facts and mental to written methods
- Geometry: properties of shapes
- Measurement
- Written addition and subtraction
- Fractions

The children will also use and apply what they know in contextual problems and different problem solving activities, involving reasoning.

Science —Materials

The children will be encouraged to work scientifically by asking relevant questions, setting up simple, practical enquiries and comparative and fair tests.

The children will learn about different materials and their properties.

Geography—Mapping Makololwe

This term the children's work will be based on the local area and that of our partner school in Kenya. The children will develop an understanding of what physical and human features. They will compare two contrasting areas and develop map reading skills.

ART and Design

The children will learn about abstract art and look at the work of Paul Klee. They will evaluate and discuss likes and dislikes whilst developing their own skills.

This term our educational trip will be to a place of worship.

Modern languages

Physical Education

The children will develop a range of physical skills this term. They will focus on outdoor games and Gymnastics.

Computing

Our computing lessons this term will be on the 'digital literacy' part of the curriculum and the children will be learning how to stay safe on line.

SMSC

This term we will be 'Celebrating differences' We will be looking at what it takes to be a good friend and recognising how differences make us special and unique.

Music

This term the children will be developing their awareness of pitch and rhythm. They will develop their understanding of dynamics through singing and the use of instruments

Religious Education

Beginning to learn about Sikhs.
We will be reading stories and finding out about places of worship and symbols from the religion.

English

During this term we will develop a number of English skills linked to fiction and non-fiction texts. The children will read, analyse and explore these genres before using them as a stimulus for their own writing. Throughout the term the children will cover a range of spelling, grammar and punctuation skills.

The genres we will be covering this half term are

*Recount

*Poetry

Numeracy

The children will cover the following areas

Number, place value and rounding

Mental addition and subtraction

Multiplication and division:

Number facts and mental to written methods

Geometry: properties of shapes

The children will also use and apply what they know in contextual problems and different problem solving activities, involving reasoning.

Science -Plants

The children will be encouraged to work scientifically by asking relevant questions, setting up simple, practical enquiries and comparative and fair tests.

The children will learn about plant life; what a plant needs to survive and the different parts.

History—The Great Fire of London.

The children will be asked to consider what a historian does. They will use evidence to ask questions and find answers to questions about the past and suggest suitable sources of evidence for historical enquiries.

The children will learn about the

ART and Design

The children will be encouraged to develop ideas from starting points throughout the curriculum. The children will comment on artworks using visual language. They will use different media to produce a final out-

Educational Visits

We will be taking the children to The Shrewsbury Museum to look at an exhibit of famous buildings from around the world which are made out of LEGO. We will also

Modern languages

N/A

Physical Education

The children will develop a range of physical skills this term. They will focus on outdoor games and dance. They will be provided with opportunities to develop their skills across a range of activities

Computing

Our computing lessons this term will be on the 'control' aspect of the curriculum and the children will explore this aspect through a range of software. They will also be devel-

SMSC

Being me in My world.

The children will be given opportunity to reflect upon their like and dislikes and be able to form opinions.

Music

This term the children will be learning to use their voices and sing. They will listen, comment on and evaluate music from different periods. They will play percussion instruments and develop an awareness of language in music.

Religious Education

Key Question: What is the meaning of symbols?

We will be looking at the meaning of symbols linked to Christianity